ARTISTIC INFORMATION

SYNOPSIS

In Psyché (2011), his first work for the company, Alexei Ratmansky revisits the realm of the supernatural and plunges into the enchanting world of Apuleius' tale. Drawing inspiration from the symphonic poem for orchestra and chorus by César Franck, he has created a work of profound lyricism and, with the complicity of the painter and installation artist, Karen Kilimnik, he unveils a dreamlike world that lends itself to reverie.
