The Crazy Horse has perpetuated the myth of Parisian glamour since it was founded in 1951 by Alain Bernardin. The Crazy Horse is celebrating its 60th birthday this year with a world tour of a unique show Forever Crazy as a tribute its founder Alain Bernardin. Inspired by the endless theme of femininity, Forever Crazy consists of a series of highly oesthetic and visual tableaux presented by twelve classically trained dancers with memorable names such as Fiamma Rosa, Hannah Shashanah, Rosa Chicago, Yasna Snigoura...

The show is on the cutting edge of art and entertainment and presents itself as a unique kaleidoscope of beauty, grac, passion and precision.

Forever Crazy is a succession of glittering, surprising, and audacious scenes, including some of the "classics" from the Crazy Horse's legendary repertoire as well as new creations by the french choreographer, Philippe Decouflé, performed by a multicultural troupe of 10 magnificent dancers.
